STEDEM & CO.

suit for damages. Amount claimed $2000. John Jacobs filed suit against Nellie Jacobs for divorce.

MAYOR'S COURT.

Mayor Thurness had a rather "loud" case from the McBroome Flats before him Saturday night. Mr. A. R. McBroome seemed to be unfortunate in securing a renter by the name of Saphrona Jacobs that overstepped the strict lines of propriety, and he endeavored to oust her from the premises and brought trespass charges against her, also charges of adultery and fornication.

Mayor Thurness soon found his office in the city building entirely inadequate to accommodate the "interest" in the trial, so he moved to the court room, and thrashed it out there. The testimony was certainly revolting, but such is life in great cities. The Mayor dismissed the case of trespass and bound the defendant over to court to answer to the charge of adultery.

DON'T BE MISLED

Many a life has been cut short by a cough that was not believed to be serious. Many a back ache and headache follows a coughing spell. Many a night is passed in restlessness caused by coughing. Many a cough "cure" that never cures is tried. Do not be misled. If you cough, take the old reliable Kemp's Balsam, the best cough cure. At druggists and dealers, 25c.

Obituary.

Chester Carr Nupp, son of James and Susie Nupp, was born in Logan, Ohio, April 1, 1907, died December 3, 1909, aged 2 years 7 months and 29 days. It is idle to say that we will miss him; how much, only those can know who loved him best, but he has gone, never more to return to our home. No more will we listen to his sweet voice or see his pleasant smiles, but his brief life will not be erased from the hearts and minds of those who loved Chester so dearly. We can scarcely resign ourselves to the thought that we must give him up, yet. Oh, why should we grieve for the loved one who hath vanished. Oh, why should we long for the clasp of his hand. Oh, why should our hearts in sorrow be yearning. When we know he has crossed to a happier land. He leaves papa, mamma and many other dear friends and relatives to weep for him, but we feel confident that our darling is safe in the arms of Him, who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." Rev. Correll officiated.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our gratitude to our neighbors and friends for their help and sympathy in the sickness and death of our dear darling baby. Also for the beautiful flowers.
